

Pseudo Aneurysm Repair System

Abstract of the Disclosure

A method for draining and sealing a pseudo aneurysm in which a guide wire is inserted over a needle. Then a multi-lumen catheter is inserted over the guide wire. The catheter is used to occlude the vessel puncture and inhibit the flow of fluids between the vessel and the pseudo aneurysm. The pseudo aneurysm is then aspirated and the vessel puncture is allowed to clot and heal.